Goodwill Stores & Donation Centers

A Service of Goodwill Easterseals Miami Valley

For more than 100 years Goodwill nationally has been an entrepreneurial leader, environmental pioneer and social innovator of the “reduce, reuse, repurpose” practice.

Each year, Goodwill diverts more than one billion pounds of materials from landfills, creating jobs for people who need work, strengthening your community, and preserving the planet.

Visit goodwill.org/donate to find more information and see how your donation impacts our community and the environment.

Suggested Donation Deductions

If you donate clothing, furniture or household goods to Goodwill, the Internal Revenue Service may allow a deduction (if itemizing your taxes) based on fair market value. When you drop off your donations at Goodwill, you'll receive a receipt from a donation attendant. Hang on to this receipt. (Goodwill Stores and Donation Centers do not retain a copy of this receipt.) At the end of the year, you may be eligible for a tax deduction on clothing and household items that are in good condition. For any advice regarding your donation in the preparation of your taxes please consult with your TAX ADVISOR. Listed below are resale values of items in area Goodwill Stores that you may use to itemize your taxes.
